WS60 Series

Fast and Easy Paint Matching

Choose a state-of-the-art sphere spectrophotometer for the ultimate in paint matching. The WS60 Series product bundle from X-Rite takes your paint matching services to a new level. It includes the Ci61+RTL handheld sphere spectrophotometer along with ColorDesigner PLUS software, a computer, monitor and label printer for a more robust paint color production process. It makes your paint department a color design center, giving your staff more time to focus on selling complementary accessories.

Key Benefits

For paint counters needing a spherical geometry measurement solution, the Ci61+RTL, included in all WS60 Series product bundles, is the ideal solution. It makes paint matching fast and easy on a wide variety of sample sizes, shapes, textures and opacity levels.

- The WS60 series product bundle from X-Rite is designed expressly for point of sale applications with simplified color searches and matching.
- The Ci61+RTL is the perfect tool to reduce time spent on the worksite or at the customer counter with fast, accurate color matches of walls, carpeting, paint chips and inspiration items.
- With a rugged design, flip-back measurement shoe and optional remote trigger, the Ci61+RTL is durable and comfortable to hold. It features easy menu navigation with a large color display and a screen lock function that prevents accidental measurements and loss of data.
- Its correlated 60° gloss value delivers sheen identification and paint matching recommendations via a remote connection.
- ColorDesigner PLUS expedites and refines the paint selection process, eliminating needless formulation errors. It connects to any paint dispenser, making it easy to mix your customer's color in the paint product they want.
